Social and Emotional Development State GATE Standard: Districts establish and implement plans to support the social and emotional development of gifted learners to increase responsibility, self-awareness, and other issues of affective development. (EC 52212a1)

How do the teachers at your site balance cognitive learning and affective learning for their GATE students?

Instruction and grouping are based on assessment. Students participate in second step lessons for discussion on behavior and emotional concerns. Counselor is also available to meet with students.

What support does your site provide for GATE students who are underachieving, learning the English language, at-risk, and/or double-labeled?

We have a pull-in teacher to help low performing students in grades 4 and 5. UCSD tutors are also assigned to classes with lower performing students. Students are paired with other students that speak the same language. Some classes this year have also grouped for systematic ELD instruction.

Parent and Community Involvement State GATE Standard: Districts provide procedures to ensure consistent participation of parents and community members in the planning and evaluation of programs for gifted students. (EC 52202 2f)

How does your site involve your DAC representative and/or your GATE steering committee in planning and reviewing your site's GATE program?

The Doyle staff and parents' GATE Task Force last year changed our Model A classes from 100% to 75% GATE identified students. This was further expanded this year in the 4th and 5th grade classes, and next year will include more diversification in grade three as well.

Program Assessment State GATE Standard: Districts establish formal and informal evaluation methods and instruments that assess the gifted program and the performance of gifted students (which meets or exceeds state content standards). Results of data collected, including state standardized tests, are used to study the value and impact of the services provided and to improve gifted programs and gifted students' performance. (EC 52212a1)

Parent survey and STAR test results.

Who manages GATE funds, and how are GATE funds distributed for use at your site?

We divide the total amount of funds by number of GATE students, and the teachers receive an allotment according to the number of GATE children they have.

How does your site ensure that GATE funds are used to support GATE program standards and that they supplement, not supplant, district funds spent on GATE learners?

GATE funds are used to enrich instructional materials or for assemblies or speakers and field trips. The principal reviews and approves all purchases.
