

SAVE THE DATE

Teacher Institute & Demonstration School

A Multi-faceted Professional Development Experience

August 10th, 11th & 12th, 2009

Discover:

Topics at the Institute:

- Implementing Depth and Complexity prompts to promote the higher levels of knowing.
- How to Think Like A Disciplinarian
- Differentiating instruction using various models of teaching
- Developing the relationship between creative and critical thinking skills
- Designing the heterogeneous classroom to meet the diverse academic, social, and cultural needs of learners.

Consider Registering as a VERTICAL TEAM

Observe:

Master teachers teach differentiated curriculum and instruction in classrooms.

Demonstration classrooms will be available in:

- Primary grades
- Upper Elementary
- Middle School

Join the faculty in sharing their knowledge of research-based curriculum and instruction.

Program Logistics:

Time:

8:00 am – 3:00 pm

Location:

Cherokee Point Elementary School
735 38th St.
San Diego, CA 92105

Fee:

$250 per person

Please NOTE that Program Improvement Funds can be used to cover the program fees!

Consultants:

Kim Dodds, NMSD Sandra Kaplan, USC
Bob Grubb, LAUSD Paige McGinty, USC
Debbie Hazelton, The Academy

3 CEU Units available or purchase from the University of Southern California - $90.00

Registration forms and more information will be sent starting May 1st, 2009.