Help design and name the new 52nd Street elementary school

SAN DIEGO – The City Heights community is invited to design and name the new 52nd Street Area Elementary School. The new school is funded by Proposition MM, the $1.51 billion bond measure that funds modernization of 165 existing schools and construction of 16 new and rebuilt schools.

Design Task Force

As a member of the Design Task Force, you'll have the opportunity to voice ideas about the design of the new school. The involvement of parents, community members, students and school staff is key to the success of this project. Plan to attend on the following dates:

Thursday, August 7, 6 - 8 p.m.
Tuesday, August 19, 6 - 8 p.m.
Thursday, September 11, 6 - 8 p.m.
Thursday, October 2, 6 - 8 p.m.

Jackson Elementary Auditorium
5465 El Cajon Boulevard, San Diego

If you have questions about the Design Task Force, contact Jeff Hudson, project manager, at 858-637-3500, or jhudson@sandi.net.

Naming the New School

The new 52nd Street Area Elementary School also needs a name. If you have a school name suggestion, please submit the name, as well as a biography of the individual for whom you think the school should be named. Send your suggestion to Janet D. Delaney, Director of Community Relations, San Diego City Schools, 4100 Normal Street, San Diego, CA 92103. If you have any questions about the school naming process, contact Janet Delaney at (619) 725-5593 or jdelaney@mail.sandi.net.
